

AGENDA FOR THE THIRD PUGWASH CONFERENCE

To be held in Kitzbühel, Austria, September 14th to 19th, and in Vienna, September 20th and 21st.

"DANGERS OF THE ATOMIC AGE AND WHAT SCIENTISTS CAN DO ABOUT THEM"

A. MEETING IN KITZBUHEL

Sunday, September 14th

1. Formal opening and review of previous Pugwash Conferences.
2. Dangers of War and of Nuclear Tests
 - (a) Material destruction and economic consequences,
 - (b) Biological effects.

Monday, September 15th and Tuesday, September 16th

3. Relaxation of Tensions and Disarmament Problems

- (a) Consequences of the arms race,
- (b) Tests - technical and political aspects,
- (c) Disarmament - technical and political aspects,
- (d) Problem of trust among nations,
- (e) Promotion of international cooperation,
- (f) World security system.

Wednesday, September 17th

4. Living in the Scientific Age

- (a) Education for the age of science,
- (b) Constructive uses of science and technology,
- (c) Energy resources and population problems,
- (d) Responsibilities of scientists in the atomic age.

Thursday, September 18th and Friday, September 19th

5. Organization of further activities.
6. Discussion of a public statement.

B. MEETING IN VIENNA

Saturday, September 20 and Sunday, September 21st

Formal and informal meetings to present summaries of the deliberations at Kitzbühel.